SLBC WINS WALTER TAYLOR SHIELD

WEEKLY WRAP UP (Thanks to Janet Legg, Editor, West Toowong Bowls Club)

Walter Taylor Shield

What a wonderful time we had on Saturday playing the annual Walter Taylor Shield competition against St Lucia. The weather was perfect and there was great camaraderie between the players. After a hard-fought battle over three rounds, St Lucia retained the Shield by scoring 162 points to 110 points.

The Shield and prizes were presented by Natasha Winters (LNP candidate for Maiwar) on behalf of Councillor Penny Wolff who was unable to attend due to another commitment.

St Lucia President Lloyd Edwards with the Shield

Robin Town won the raffle prize donated by Councillor Penny Wolff

In his speech accepting the Shield, Lloyd made particular mention of how well the competition had been organised by West Toowong and gave special thanks to Jim and Ros Walker for their efforts.

Overall Winners

Stephen O'Shanassy, Dicky Ng, John Stack

Overall Second Place

Peter Jordan, Antony Flint, Peter Morill

Mixed Pairs Competition

The final of this competition will be played on Wednesday when Suzanne and Peter Jordan take on Rachel Chiang and Dicky Ng. Both teams had convincing wins in their semi-final games.

Rachel and Dicky had a fantastic first half performance leading Tim and Pam Salway 27-2 after 12 ends. No, this is not a misprint. Rachel and Dicky scored 19 unanswered points over six ends in a first half spell that must have had spectators wondering if they were in a parallel universe. However, in a lesson to us all on the importance of staying positive and varying the length when you get a chance, Tim and Pam strung together eight winning ends after the break to go down fighting 27-15. Well done to both teams for such an entertaining game.

The second semi- final saw Suzanne and Peter have a convincing win over Erin and Max Grey after getting off to a good start with six consecutive winning ends in the first half, to be 19-4 after 10 ends. Erin and Max kept competing and managed to score a two on both the 15th and 16th ends. Well done to both teams for reaching the semi-finals. This promises to be a final that will be well worth watching.
